Stewardship Reflection

"Then he asked them, 'Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?'"
(Mark 4:40)

Do you really trust God? Is God your first choice or your last resort? Is your faith something you just do on Sunday, or do you live the Gospel message every day of the week? Many of us know about God. How many of us have a personal relationship with Him? Start now, open your heart to receive our Lord. Talk and listen to Him every day. Move your discipleship from head knowledge to heart knowledge.

MARK 4:41

Calming Our Storms

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

The Gospels use images to help us understand the inner journey of our hearts and spirits. This Gospel story of being swamped by a storm is also about the storms of daily living and how they can bring us to faith. "As evening drew on" suggests those times in life when we move into darkness and confusion. These moments may occur when "we cross to the other side" of life—from childhood through adolescence and into adulthood, through sickness until we find healing, from raising a family to being empty-nesters, the stress we seek to manage through the upheavals of life—all times when we can feel overwhelmed by what we cannot control.

The Gospel today suggests: 1) Confronted by the question, "Why are you terrified? Do you not have faith?" it submits that it is God who calms our storms and not we ourselves. 2) The Gospel story is more about bringing calm and peace into our stormy inner turmoil than about fixing the outer turmoil with which we may be struggling. 3) The inner calm usually comes at the point of surrender, when we fear the worst because life is beyond our control: "Do you not care that we are perishing?" 4) Though our inner storm grows calm by surrendering to God through faith, the events of our outer storm may continue to be present, yet those events lose their power to overcome us when we accept that God is in control, not us. ●

Reflect

Have you ever found peace by surrendering your attempt to control your life?

Landscaping Committee Needs Your Help!

Do you enjoy being outside? Do you find fulfillment in being amid God's natural creations? Then maintaining our parish landscape may be the ministry you're called to! The committee is currently seeking some folks to lend their helping hands to maintain the lovely flower beds at the church.

The schedule is very flexible, and you don't even have to have a green thumb! It is a daily task that requires several participants to maintain a rotating schedule. The results are well worth the effort!

If this ministry sounds like just what you've been looking for, please contact Kathy Cozza at 757-647-2689.

Saint Francis de Sales

Holy Hour

with Bishop Luis Rafael
Thursday, June 27 at 6:30 pm

A traveling monstrance is part of the Diocese of Raleigh's centennial, which observes the 100th anniversary of its founding in 1924, and it will be at Immaculate Conception Church on Thursday, June 27. We will be celebrating a Holy Hour with Bishop Luis Rafael at 6:30 pm that evening.

The endeavor serves not only to unite the diocese during a milestone, but to focus on the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist during a year that will see the National Eucharistic Congress in July.

A liturgical vessel that holds the Eucharist, a monstrance is part of venerating the Blessed Sacrament. The word monstrance has its roots in the Latin verb monstrare, which means to show.

The traveling monstrance was an important part of the Eucharistic Congress, which took place in October 2023. This year, after traveling through the Raleigh Deanery, beginning at Sacred Heart Church, which was the cathedral for the diocese from 1924 until 2017, the monstrance is traveling to parishes, schools, homes and neighborhoods to be a central part of similar celebrations marking the rich history and bright future of our Catholic faith in the Diocese of Raleigh.
